

Liddle House
Princetown
Schenectady County
New York

HABS No. NY-352

HABC
NY,
47-PRINC,
1-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
NY-3 District

Historic American Buildings Survey
Prepared at Headquarters for
District of Albany

HABS

NY 1

47-PRINC

1-

LIDDLE HOUSE
PRINCETOWN
SCHENECTADY COUNTY, N.Y.

OWNER OR CUSTODIAN: Robert Kelly, occupies and owns the house.

DATE OF ERECTION: 1793

ARCHITECT: Unknown

BUILDER: Men employed by Robert Liddle.

PRESENT CONDITION: Fair

NUMBER OF STORIES: Two stories

MATERIAL OF CONSTRUCTION: Stone and brick. It has been considerably patched, which was done with plaster.

OTHER EXISTING RECORDS: History of Albany and Schenectady Counties, by Munsell-Page 165.
Also, Map drawn by Edwin G. Conde-1931.

ADDITIONAL DATA: Robert Liddle emigrated from Scotland in 1775. He was a mason by trade, and did much work in Albany, going there through the wilderness to earn money with which to pay for his home.
This house is fast deteriorating and will soon fall to ruin, if something is not done to preserve it.

R. E. Gibbs, Historian

Not surveyed

A. K. Edworthy

W 11/8/60